Certificate III in Aged Care CHC30212

This qualification will prepare you for work as a carer in a residential aged care facility.

It is the standard entry qualification for workers in this sector and will introduce you to all aspects of a carer’s role including personal care, well-being and assistance with daily activities.

Individuals involved in this type of work need the physical capacity to deal with personal care and must demonstrate genuine compassion and empathy towards others.

Not only will you learn the latest industry standards from qualified and experienced tutors, you will also have the opportunity to gain practical skills through work experience, organised by the college.

Develop your knowledge and skills to work as a carer in a variety of health environments, including Community Care, Disability, Aged Care and the Public/Private hospitals.

Employment Opportunities

- Nursing assistant
- Community care worker
- Disability service worker
- Field officer
- Personal care assistant

This course covers 14 units of competency and you must be deemed competent in all units to be granted the qualification. All units of competency are off and on job based.

Work practical supervised by your trainer will cover the personal care unit in the workplace, and then all students will be required to complete 100 hours of unsupervised work practical, in High and Low care facilities during the course duration. Work placement is set up by the college. The practical starting times are from 6.30am.

- The course is delivered over 16 weeks, Thursday and Fridays 9.30am-3.30pm
- Expressions of interest are now being taken

COST $2500.00

Course commencing February, 2015
Certificate IV in Aged Care CHC40108

This qualification is designed for those who aspire to work in the aged care sector. It is recommended for those who are already in the industry and are seeking to enhance their formal qualifications and skills in the aged care sector. The qualification addresses work primarily in residential facilities within defined organization guidelines and service plans.

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to work independently and also be in a position to work as a team leader within aged care residential facility and centre based services.

HOLDERS OF THIS QUALIFICATION WILL:

Carry out activities related to maintaining an individual's well-being through personal care and/or other activities of living. You will plan and monitor service delivery, undertake relevant administrative work, implement and monitor WH & S policies and procedures and organise an effective work environment

- May provide services to individuals with complex needs, and/or work with groups of older people. The work may include training and support to promote independence and community participation, which may be provided as part of activities and programs in a variety of settings including residential and centre based programs
- Report to service managers and liaise with professionals and other service providers
- May be required to supervise and/or coordinate a limited number of other workers.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

Holders of this qualification may be employed as: Accommodation support worker, Assistant hostel supervisor, Care supervisor, Care team leader, Day activity worker, Hostel supervisor, Personal Care Worker, Program coordinator – social programs, Residential care worker, Support worker

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

To gain entry into CHC40108 Certificate IV in Aged Care a candidate must be recognized as competent, through a recognised training program or recognition process, against the following core units from CHC30212 Certificate III in Aged Care (or equivalent):

- CHCAC318B Work effectively with older people
- CHCAC319A Provide support to people living with dementia
- CHCCS411B Work effectively in the community sector
- CHCICS303A Support individual health and emotional well being
- CHCPA301B Deliver care services using a palliative approach
- HLTAP301B Recognise healthy body systems in a health care context.

This course will commence in February, 2015. Register your interest with the college.